

Gannett Training

Fact-Checking Photos Exercise

Presented by

Mike Reilley

mikereilley1@gmail.com | @journtoolbox | journaliststoolbox.org

GANNETT

Photo Fact-Check Exercise

- Pause the video and go to the exercise linked off the web page where you're watching this video
- Download the three photos in the drive folder
- We'll give you context for three photos that have been shared over social media
 - These are actual case studies
- Reverse image search the three photos to see if the context of the photos are accurate or misrepresented
- If misrepresented, tell us when/where the photo was actually from
- Use Images.google.com and or TinEye.com to search
- Restart the video to see the answers
- NO PEEKING!!

Answers

- Ariana Grande's photo was from the TV series "Scream Queens"
 - She was not injured in the concert bombing attack
- The trashed park is not from a 2019 climate change protest in Australia but from a 420 marijuana rally in London's Hyde Park several months earlier
- The homeless photo is from Toronto in 2013, not in Chicago in February 2019

